TRANSCRIPT of

MEMORIAL INSCRIPTIONS

in the church and churchyard of

ST JAMES The GREAT

IDRIDGEHAY

DERBYSHIRE

1988

GENERAL INFORMATION

The church of St. James, Idridgehay was consecrated in August 1855. The parish was formed from part of Kirk Ireton, Wirksworth and Duffield. Wirksworth was not a small parish, but Duffield up to the middle of the nineteenth century had been of enormous extent. It consisted chiefly of woodland, park and common land and was part of Duffield Frith, a royal forest from Norman times, until the seventeenth century. The land was then cleared and developed according to local needs.

Idridgehay is a scattered community, lying about 3 miles from Wirksworth. This was a mainly farming community, but is within easy travelling distance of Derby for people working in town to live in the country.

EXPLANATION

The memorials have been copied verbatim, including epitaphs if any, and have been typed as such, except where the symbol / indicates a new line in the original inscription.

Immediately after each inscription, is an indication of the form the 1emorial takes, eg. Limestone headstone.

INDEXES

The index of names refers to the reference number designated to each memorial, and all named on each memorial are indexed. Monumental Masons are indexed on a separate list, as are all place names, houses, farms etc. mentioned on the memorials.
